...on whatever sphere of being
The mind of man may be intent
At the time of death'-that is the one action
(And the time of death is every moment)
Which shall fructify in the lives of others

T. S. Eliot

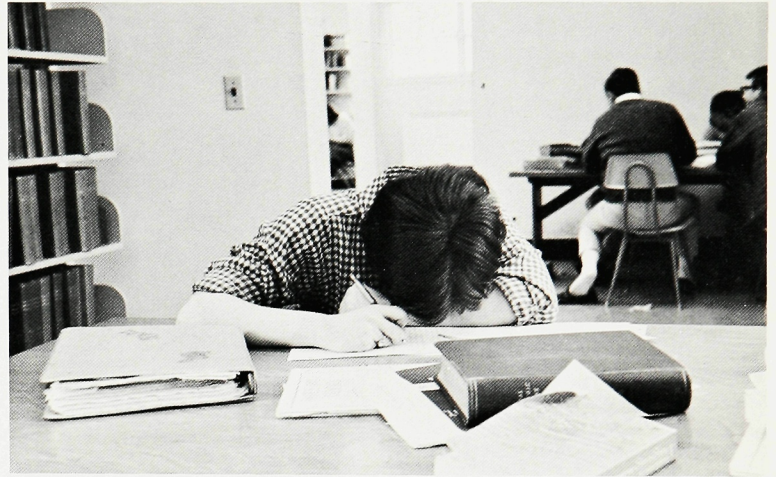

The purpose of a yearbook is to present to its readers an accurate account of the influences which directly affect the student. To be meaningful such a record must be simple. With these two thoughts in mind, we have attempted to compile a permanent history of the achievements, activities and atmosphere of the school year. Therefore, we have presented the events and activities of the year in the form of a seasonal outline. The color dividers reflect the growing intensity of the academic and social life as the year progresses. Our efforts will be rewarded if in the future the reader will find in The 1964 MIRROR a reminder of his life at North Shore.

Purple and White

FIRST ROW: John Hickey, Steve Hawxhurst, Mark Nelson, Nick Babson, John Darrow.

SECOND ROW: Jeff Alsdorf, Bill Hinchliff, Betsy Cohler, Lea Durham, Mitchell Dalton, Tom Moore (Editor).

THIRD ROW: Debby Vainder, Nancy Scribner, Betty Anne Clarke, Bim Stanton, Rennie Knopf, Judy Drake, Anne Young, Holly Potter, John Coffin.

The purpose of the Purple and White for the year 1963 and 1964 has been to stimulate a deeper interest in the student body over significant issues that are world-wide as well as school-wide. The staff was at least tripled in size in order to provide a surplus of material from which the more provocative and interesting articles could be selected.

The newspaper, or more accurately news magazine, was criticized by many groups (faculty, underclassmen of lower intelligence, Mr. Lacey, and angry young alumnae) for its lack of emphasis on issues pertinent to their own select interests. The Purple and White is instead a newspaper which through its variety tries to satisfy all groups rather than just one. Not everyone chuckles over the corny jokes of the subtle Campus Quotes column, but on the other hand, the Berlin crisis isn't the most interesting subject to read about either.

The staff gains the greatest satisfaction from the magazine when it appears neatly stacked in the lunchroom for distribution. Though each issue does not last materially forever as the MIRROR proposes, the Purple and White as an institution remains as long as students wish to write.

Girls' Athletic Association--First Term

FIRST ROW: Patti Keel, (Secretary), Jan Miller (President), Joannie Brew (Vice-President).

SECOND ROW: Saralyn Kopple, Nancy Scribner, Liz Olson, Barbie Wells, Susie Williams, Ondre Huston, Judy Drake, Sherry Fitzmorris, Debby Vainder, Lyn Miller.

G.A.A. is a group organized to create spirit and friendliness in the school.

As an organization we try to do our best to improve and help the school in any way we can. As individuals we assist teachers in small projects such as typing and filing. As a group we undertake large projects such as a book-and-bake fair, and a always successful banquet.

G.A.A. is the girls of the high school. The success or failure of the organization belongs solely to them. We have a common goal, we strive to contribute, to assist, to improve and above all to support our school. This year we hope that we have reached our goal, and, if possible, surpassed it.

Student Council--First Term

FIRST ROW: Ellen Howe, John Darrow (President), Debby Strong (Vice-President), Candy Dern (Secretary).

SECOND ROW: Bert Stern, Liza Howe, Bill Guthmann, Charlie Gardner, Bill Davis, Linda Allison, Tom Dietzgen, John Hickey, Anne Pugh.

ABSENT: Anne Young (Treasurer).

In past years the emphasis in Council has been on the discussion of new powers. We believe that the way council was organized it could not handle these powers. Therefore, this year we have worked to change Council into a stronger, more efficient organization. We now have a set of by-laws for the running of meetings, and a series of sub-committees to run the different functions. This means that the council is now a supervising body with time to work on more projects. We believe that this system will enable it to carry more responsibilities and handle them correctly.

SECOND ROW: Phoebe Pettingell, Susan Eastman, Ted Mouzakeotis (Co-Chairman), Di Harper (Co-Chairman), Ed Stanton, John Moreschi, Betsy Cohler.

The Morning Exercise Committee has thoroughly investigated the typical questions and problems presented every year. For instance: "What is the purpose of Morning Exercise?" Mr. Smith presented a Morning Exercise discussing the value of gathering together everyday to share experiences and to acquire knowledge outside the classroom. We distributed questionnaires to discover the student body's opinions concerning the Morning Exercises. After discussing the results of the questionnaires we arrived at some interesting conclusions, but no solutions.

The Morning Exercise Committee is a unifying committee because it encourages the students in the Lower, Middle and Upper Schools to participate in the Morning Exercises. The Morning Exercises require everyone's interest since it is the one concrete daily activity which helps to make the school a community of interested and interesting people.

ABSENT: Dan Randle.

The idea of Beach Guerrilla Warfare originated with a rather elementary game of night time water balloon throwing in the Lake Forest woods. It was an escape from summer boredom, a novel pastime, but nothing more. The woods, however, lacked something. The area of combat was too large, the ground too hard for trenches, and the location too far from most of the participants' homes. Tower Road Beach offered all that the woods lacked; so the game, now grown in ferocity and cunning to the proportions of full war, was moved to the latter location and attained its present name.

Ensuing battles were marked by the development of trench warfare, advanced camouflage techniques (using handy bushes and beach grass), acute hearing, and sharp night vision. The number of participants increased and soon the two opposing armies numbered five gallant lads apiece. Following close upon the beginning of any battle; hasty, careless troopers would be cut down like wheat before the sickle by more experienced hands and wet corpses (to be hit by a water balloon equals death) would lie outstretched on the beach with ugly, sand clogged water spots covering their youthful bodies which once so proudly strode the earth. Only inclement winter weather stopped the bloody carnage which should resume with renewed ferocity in the spring.

The Senior Class of 1964

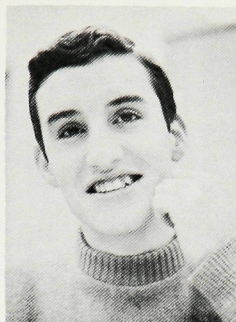

The class of 1964 has many different interests and activities. Because of these differences, we are a class of individual contributors with no clique of leadership. More importantly, we have learned since Freshman year to respect and protect everyone's right to express his opinion.

The focus of interest has varied. Some of us have centered our energies on outside activities and others on school activities. Enthusiasm has been generated by such varied interests as The Chicago Blackhawks, English Seminar, Verdi, Bobby Dylan, Desotos and red Corvettes. The Misfits, the Picardy Three, French Operettas, The Grand Duke and Council campaigns are some notable results of our interests. There is an avid interest in the Arts.

The sense of humor shared by our class is only one of our unifying factors. And, although we resent authority, our sense of humor has enabled us to form close relationships with the faculty. We, especially the boys, have come up with such innovations as beach guerrilla warfare, the Jolly Green Giant, flower collecting for Mayday, watching sunrises, cookie parties and memorable Vaudeville acts.

The other unifying force has been our years of shared experiences: lunch line and council controversy, lectures on behavior in Morning Ex, ski trips, Mr. Lacey, Tower Road Beach, new teachers, a 60 ft. River Boat, and 8:25 A.M. for four years.

TEEN-AGE TEN COMMANDMENTS

1. Stop and think before you drink.
2. Don't let your parents down, they brought you up.
3. Be humble enough to obey. You will be giving orders yourself some day.
4. At the first moment turn away from unclean thinking.
5. Don't show off when driving. If you want to race, go to Indianapolis.
6. Choose a date who would make a good mate.
7. Go to church faithfully. The Creator gives us a week. Give Him back at least an hour.
8. Choose your companions carefully. You are what they are.
9. Avoid following the crowd. Be an engine, not a caboose.
10. Keep the original Ten Commandments.

Through the Passing Years

It is with pride that once again through the medium of photography we have been able to fashion a graphic record of your school year - a pride stemming doubly from the knowledge that herein not only have we helped to create a record of so much meaning to each of you, but in so doing we have had the opportunity to share warm pleasant associations with so many.

Always, as years pass, this record will have a special place in your heart for it will be the visible token of the wonderful experience of your growing years, rich in the foundation of true and lasting friendship.

Our heartiest congratulations to all!

Cordially,

John Howell and Craftsmen
